

Callaway Gardens Resort

Just as Callaway Gardens' founders, Cason J. Callaway and his wife, Virginia, loved to share their outdoor sanctuary with family and friends, the idyllic retreat also has been home to groups and meetings for more than 60 years. With its scenic location away from the hustle and bustle of the city, the iconic company truly fulfills its mission of "connecting man and nature in a way that benefits both." Our wide array of event spaces, dining options, corporate teambuilding programs, recreational opportunities and comfortable accommodations make Callaway Gardens the South's unrivaled destination for group gatherings in a spectacular natural environment.
